Certified Divorce Financial Analyst® Karen Weible Begins

New Service for Divorcing Couples in the Central Illinois Area

JERSEYVILLE, Illinois (August 1, 2014) – The Institute for Divorce Financial Analysts™ (IDFA™) is pleased to announce that Karen Weible of Weible Divorce Financial Solutions in Jerseyville, IL recently completed a specialized educational program in professional divorce analysis and is now a Certified Divorce Financial Analyst® (CDFA).

Ms. Weible is trained to provide financial information and assistance to people going through a divorce. She evaluates the tax implications of dividing property and the financial impact of various settlement options for dividing marital property (including pensions) and child and spousal support payments.

“I help determine the short-term and long-term financial impact of a proposed divorce settlement to make sure it works now, as well as down the road,” says Karen Weible, CDFA. “I examine and analyze the financial issues of a divorce, providing my clients and their lawyers with data to help strengthen their case. I help my clients avoid the common financial pitfalls of divorce by offering valuable insight into the pros and cons of different settlement proposals.”

Karen Weible works with clients individually or as couples, helping them to come to grips with the financial reality of their individual divorce situation. Developing comprehensive insight of the short and long-term financial effects of divorce can save valuable time, money and distress, especially if the process is conducted early in the legal proceedings.
